

Washington, D.C.

Visitor's Guide

Office of Congresswoman Angie Craig

Second District, Minnesota

A Note from the Congresswoman

---

Welcome to Washington! I am excited that you have chosen to visit our nation's capital. My staff and I have put together this guide to help you plan your trip to this historic city. From monuments and museums to restaurants and shopping, there are so many exciting sites to see here in Washington.

I encourage you to try to see as much as you can while you are in town. Whether you choose to rent a bike, tour the city by foot, or utilize the DC Metro system, there are a variety of options to help you get around. Some of my favorite attractions are the National Air and Space Museum, the National Museum of African American History and Culture, and the Phillips Collection. I also always love catching a game at the Washington Nationals Stadium (though my loyalty will always be with the Minnesota Twins!).

Additionally, the Jefferson Memorial, the Washington Monument, and the Lincoln Memorial, are some of D.C.'s most popular attractions. There are also nineteen free Smithsonian museums that have something to capture every interest. It's also great to make a trip to Arlington National Cemetery where you can pay your respects to our fallen veterans and watch the Changing of the Guard at the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier.

Washington also has a great food scene. One of my favorite restaurants is Bluejacket, a brewery located in the Navy Yard neighborhood. I would recommend the Bluejacket Double Burger or the Pulled Pork Sandwich with a Goldfinch Beer. We are also including a list of restaurants recommended by our staff in this guide.

If you have any questions during your visit, or need assistance, please call our office at (202) 225-2271. After all, this office doesn't belong to me, but to you and all the residents of Minnesota's Second Congressional District. Don't forget to share with me some photos of your experience in D.C. via my social media accounts.

Once again, welcome to Washington. Enjoy your stay, and I hope to hear from you soon!

Kindest regards,

United States Botanic Gardens:

100 Maryland Ave SW, Washington, DC 20001

Free Admission

Daily Hours: 10 AM – 5 PM

More than 200 years ago, George Washington envisioned a botanical garden when outlining plans for the capital. This was intended to show the importance of plants to the nation and so far it has done so and more. This garden is not only aesthetically pleasing, it also educates the public about the ecological importance of plants.
